

History of the 10 miler

2005

The 10 Miler was created to help train for many marathons being run in May. The inaugural race took place on Sunday, April 24th. The race started and finished downtown at the House of Blues. The first year featured over 1,400 participants. The winning time for the men was 55:26 (downtown course record) by Fred Kieser and 1:03:21 for the women by Hannah Purdy who is still the youngest female winner ever at 27 years and 3 weeks old.

2009

The 10 Miler course moved from downtown to Edgewater Park. The 2 person relay (5 mile legs) was introduced. The winning times at the new course were David Mooney's 55:01 for the men and Kelly Greens 1:07:18 for the women.

2011

At 23 years and 5 months, Andrew Riggins became the youngest 10 Miler champion with a time of 57:37. He also became the first individual to finish in the top three of this race three different times. This also happened to be in consecutive years having finished 3rd in 2009 and 2nd in 2010!

2014

The 10th Annual 10 Miler launched its 100 Mile Club for the 26 people who have run all 10 races. This is the first year the race featured over 2000 ten miler individual runners. Heidi Greenwood becomes the first ever THREE time champion breaking the female course record at 59 minutes and 18 seconds!

2015

As we move into the second decade of this race, how many more runners will we add to our 100 Mile Club? Will we see Heidi Greenwood's continued dominance in this event? 2014 saw the most 10 milers in the events' history. Can history be made again?

2017

Twenty-two (22) different states were represented this year. Six (6) age group records were broken. Both the Female and Male 16 to 19 age group records were set! We also had 50 teams compete in the 5 mile relay.

In its second year, Anjanette Arabian broke the female record with a time of 1:02:59 for the 10 mile race. This is the course record for the downtown route.

2006

With a time of 1:06:39, 49 year old Joanne Collins became the oldest 10 Miler winner of all time. Besides Joanne, no one over the age of 35 has ever won.

2008

No 10 Miler age group awards were broken this year, however nine age group records were broken in the 5k. It's the most 5k age group records set in any given year. Jason Ream set the 5k course record with a time of 16:43.

David Mooney becomes the first person to win the race twice and win it in back-to-back years with a then 10 Miler record time of 53:49. This year also featured the most participants at nearly 2,500 even with it being the last year featuring the 5k!

2010

2012

24 year old Andy Schweitzer from Beavercreek, OH runs the fastest 10 Miler on record with a time of 52:24.

2013

Heidi Greenwood becomes the first female to win consecutive 10 Milers. Along the way she became the first female to break 60 minutes in the 10 Miler running 59:32. Andy Schweitzer also repeats his title.

In 2016, we experienced a marriage proposal, seven (7) new Age Group Course Records were broken, and the 100 Mile Club grew to 32 members. What will 2017 bring?

Are you ready to make history in the races 14th year? How many age group records will be broken? Will there be any people added to the 100 mile club?
